Padma Shri Dr. Prahalada Ramarao has insightfully described how the concepts of teaching and learning are changing. He elaborated on the future of Academic Institutions and how it is to become innovation hubs in order to shape the students into becoming capable of taking up future responsibilities to the Nation and contribute to society. Earlier concept of ‘getting degree and then getting a job’ due to global attractions transformed today into ‘how to participate in the growth of the Nation’. In this regard, it is crucial for Academic Institutions to support and grow innovation.

Therefore, the objective to elaborate the future of Academic Institutions as becoming innovation hubs has been successfully achieved. The Distinguished Lectures have engaged around 200 participants across country along with RUAS Internal Faculty Members and Ph.D. Scholars.
